

LCHANG NANG

Fact Sheet

Lchang Nang Retreat - The House of Trees

Lchang Nang, which translates to 'The House of Trees' in Ladakhi, is an eco-conscious luxury resort dotted with old elm, apricot, and apple trees. In our endeavour to embody conscious luxury & green tourism, our resort is constructed with sustainable local materials, offers locally sourced food & operates completely on solar energy with minimal use of plastic. Our warm, efficient, and committed team aims to provide an unforgettable stay at our property.

Dining

Lchang Nang offers delicious meals using ingredients from our organic garden and the village. Our professional chefs have expertise in traditional Indian, Ladakhi and continental cuisines. We also bake our own bread, cake, and pastries. Moreover, our chefs take due care of your dietary preferences.

Accommodation

Cocooned in snug Himalayan silences, sleep comes blissful here.
We have two types of luxury cottages:

Nomad King Cottage

Free standing double occupancy rooms with king size bed & a private Sit-out garden area

Tranquil Family Cottage

Two interconnected cottages (separated by double doors) with private Sit-out garden areas.
